He or she shall have no claim against Glendining & Co. in respect of any accident which may occur or injury, damage or loss howsoever caused, save insofar as the injury, damage or loss shall be caused by the direct negligence of Glendining & Co. employees.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. Definitions. In these Conditions Glendining & Co., who act only as auctioneers and agents for the vendor, are called "the Auctioneers", and the representative of Glendining & Co. conducting the auction is called "The Auctioneer".
2. General. Whilst Glendining & Co. make every effort to ensure the accuracy of their catalogue and the description of any lot:
 - (a) Each lot as set out in the catalogue or as divided or combined with any other lot or lots is sold by the vendor with all faults, imperfections and errors of descriptions.
 - (b) Glendining & Co. do not accept responsibility for the authenticity, attribution, genuineness, origin, authorship, date, age, period, condition or quality of any lot, unless they have been instructed in writing by the vendor so to certify, and in such case the Auctioneers do so as agents of the vendor and are not themselves responsible for such claims.
 - (c) All statements, whether printed in the catalogue or made orally, as to any of the matters set out in (b) above are statements of opinion only and are not to be taken as being or implying any warranties or representations of fact by Glendining & Co., unless they have been instructed in writing by the vendor so to certify, and in such case the Auctioneers do so as agents of the vendor and are not themselves responsible for such claims.
 - (d) Any claim under any Statute must be received in writing by the Auctioneer within ten days of the day of the sale.
3. The Auction.
 - (a) The Auctioneer has absolute discretion to divide any lot, to combine any two or more lots or to withdraw any lot or lots from the sale, to refuse bids, regulate bidding or cancel the sale without in any case giving any reason or without previous notice. He may bid on behalf of the vendor for all goods which are being offered subject to reserve or at the Auctioneer's discretion.
 - (b) The highest bidder shall be the buyer except in the case of a dispute. If during the auction the Auctioneer considers that a dispute has arisen, he has absolute discretion to settle it or to re-offer the lot. The Auctioneer may at his sole discretion determine the advance of bidding or refuse a bid.
 - (c) Each lot is put up for sale subject to any reserve price placed by the vendor. Where there is no reserve price (but not otherwise) the seller has the right to bid either personally or by any one person (who may be the Auctioneer).

- (d) All conditions, notices, descriptions, statements and other matters in the catalogue and elsewhere concerning any lot are subject to any statements modifying or affecting the same made by the Auctioneer from the rostrum prior to any bid being accepted for the lot.
 4. Rescission. Notwithstanding any other terms of these Conditions, if within fourteen days after the sale Glendining & Co. have received from the buyer of any lot notice in writing that in his view the lot is a deliberate forgery and within twenty-one days after such notification the buyer returns the same to Glendining & Co. in the same condition as at the time of sale and by producing evidence, the burden of proof to be upon the buyer, satisfies Glendining & Co. that considered in the light of the entry in the catalogue the lot is a deliberate forgery, then the sale of the lot will be rescinded and the purchase price of the same refunded. Both the buyer and the vendor agree to be bound by the decision of Glendining & Co.
 5. Default. Glendining & Co. disclaim responsibility for default by either the buyer or the vendor because they act as agents for the vendor only and therefore do not pay out to the vendor until payment is received from the buyer. Instructions given by telephone are accepted at the sender's risk and must be confirmed in writing forthwith.
 6. In the event of a sale by private treaty both the vendor and the buyer agree to be bound by the General and any Special Conditions of Sale.
- ## BUYERS CONDITIONS
18. Inspection. Each buyer by making a bid for a lot acknowledges that he has satisfied himself fully before bidding by inspection or otherwise as to all the Sale Conditions the physical condition of and description of the lot including but not restricted to whether the lot is damaged or has been repaired or restored.
 19. Property and Risk. Legal title will not pass to the buyer until the lot(s) has been paid for in full and the Auctioneers shall be entitled to a lien on any lot sold until the purchase price (as defined in 23 below) is paid in full but each lot is at the sole risk of the buyer from the fall of the hammer. Each buyer shall forthwith give his full names and permanent address and if called upon to do so by the Auctioneer shall forthwith pay to Glendining & Co. such proportion of the purchase price as the Auctioneer may require. If the buyer fails to do so, the lot may at the Auctioneer's sole discretion be put up again and re-sold.

20. Every bidder shall be deemed to act as principal unless there is in force a written acknowledgment by Glendining & Co. that he acts as agent on behalf of a named principal.

21. Removal of Goods.

- (a) No purchase shall be claimed or removed until it has been paid for and the sale has been concluded. All purchases shall be paid for and removed at the buyer's risk and expense by the end of the second working day after the sale, failing which the Auctioneer shall not be responsible if the same are lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed and all lots not so removed shall remain at the risk of the buyer and subject to minimum warehousing charge of 25p per day. If they are not paid for and removed within seven days of the sale the Auctioneer may re-sell them by auction privately without notice to the buyer. A liability which there may be on the part of the Auctioneer in respect of any loss shall be restricted to a maximum of the price paid by the buyer of the lot.
- (b) In the event of any failure of the buyers to comply with any of the above conditions the damages recoverable by the seller or the Auctioneers from the defaulter shall include any loss arising on any re-sale of the lot together with the charges and expenses in respect of both sales, and together with interest at 2% above Midland Bank PL Base Rate upon the price of any lot which has not been paid for within 48 hours of the sale, and any money deposited in payment shall be held by the Auctioneers on account of any liability of the defaulter to them or to the seller. The Auctioneers are unable to accept payment from successful bidders other than in cash or by the bidder's own cheque. Cheques drawn by third parties, whether in the Auctioneers' favour or requiring endorsement, cannot be accepted.

FOREWORD

“As far back as I can remember war medals and decorations have always held a peculiar fascination for me . . . I cannot think of any hobby more intensely interesting or historically instructive than the collection of these mute testimonials to bravery and endurance.”

C. S. Gifford, The Laurels of War, The Hobby-Rider, October, 1920

Carleton Sprague Gifford, of Boston, Massachusetts, a banker by profession, began to collect orders, decorations and medals around 1916, after the chance purchase of two British campaign medals from an estate. He joined the American Numismatic Association in 1920, became a member of the Royal Numismatic Society, and in the 1920s and 1930s was an active member of one of the oldest and most respected numismatic organisations in the United States, namely the Boston Numismatic Society, serving as President in 1924, and again in the years 1926 to 1928.

The collection grew rapidly and within a few years it was considered one of the best of its kind in private hands in the U.S.A. and, at the time, probably second only to that of Harold Gillingham of Philadelphia. In 1923 more than 500 pieces from the collection were the subject of a summer exhibition at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts entitled “History Speaks in Gilt, in Silver, and in Bronze”. The display must have been an impressive one, and on July 7th, a full page illustrated feature was devoted to the exhibition in the magazine section of the Boston Evening Transcript.

As can be seen in the pages of this catalogue, C. S. Gifford’s tastes and interests were not blinkered or narrow. He took, quite naturally, a great deal of interest in the medals of his own country, including urging a revival of the Purple Heart, and suggesting that numismatists be consulted on questions of medallic design. However, due to the rarity of certain United States decorations and medals, the collection does contain a number of pieces which are marked “Exhibition Purposes Only”, and these are noted accordingly in the catalogue.

He obviously had a very keen interest in British orders, decorations and medals, which form about a third of the present sale. Included in this section are a very fine Garter Star, by C. F. Hancock, and an early breast star of the Royal Guelphic Order of Hanover, by Rundell, Bridge and Rundell. There is a good representative selection of British campaign medals, ranging from the Naval General Service, 1793–1840, up to the 1914–1918 War; and including H.E.I.C. issues. Regimental, Life Saving and Long Service awards are also represented. The medal for the defence of Kelat-I-Ghilzie, to an officer of the 43rd Native Infantry, is probably the rarest piece.

The collection contains some extremely good Imperial German and Imperial Russian material, and among his most prized items can be numbered the Brazilian Victory Medal and the Austrian Order of the Golden Fleece. His paper on the latter piece was read before the Boston Numismatic Society, subsequently appearing in the Numismatist, July 1934.

From the very beginning the aim was to build a collection as representative as possible of orders, decorations and medals of the world, in all their diversity and variety. Without an adequate source of supply in his own country, in face of high import duties, often capriciously applied, and the slower postal services of those days, it is a tribute to C. S. Gifford's enthusiasm and resourcefulness that he succeeded so well in such an ambitious undertaking and, despite all of these difficulties, maintained a generally high standard of condition throughout the collection.

We feel sure it would have been Carleton Gifford's wish that the dispersal of his collection, with its wide selection of items, will give others the same pleasure, interest and inspiration, as they obviously gave to him.

It should be noted that the colour illustrations on the cover are all slightly enlarged.

∴ The now widely used classification of "Usual repair to suspender" could also be applied to this medal. As so many Abyssinia medals show signs of solder marks could it be that they have not been repaired, but are as issued? The same minor imperfections can be found on other campaign medals, and it is doubtful whether they would have been a cause of concern to the recipients.

The size of this is larger than the medal awarded to Horn in gold and sold to the public in bronze, and as such is unrecorded by Julian. We can offer no explanation, however Julian's mention of delay and his comment on "strange penny pinching on the size of the die" may provide a clue.

"The medal for John Horn . . . is one of the most deserved ever given to an individual in this country. His record of heroic rescues is so lengthy as to be more worthy of an army of rescuers than a mere single person". R. W. Julian, Medals of the United States Mint, the First Century, 1792–1892.

PRIVATE, POLITICAL, SCHOLASTIC AND OTHER MEDALS, BADGES AND AWARDS

- *401 Massachusetts. An extremely interesting private presentation medal. Obv. This medal presented by William Austin Esqr., commander of the ship Panther, to David Layha, for his exertions in the preservation of the said Ship with her cargo, in the gales of 17, 21 & 27 September 1822. Rev. sailing ship to l., assailed by rough seas, with masts broken and sails battered, the name Panther on stern, above Capt. David Layha Died on board Brig Carib from Truxillo to Boston. July the 8, 1837. Aged 35 Years. Silver, 72mm, all engraved. A little worn from polishing and handling, pierced and plugged; the reverse presumably engraved in 1837, or later, as a form of family record.

Purchased 1940 from an officer of the Provident Institution for Savings, Boston; originally from the estate of Miss Elizabeth Webster, who lodged in his parent's home in her later years until her death in 1926. Miss Webster claimed part Portuguese descent and it was believed by the family that Layha was either her maternal uncle or great uncle.

The Panther was, almost certainly, one of the many New England ships involved in the China trade; the trade, although highly profitable, was characterised by long, arduous voyages and often great personal danger, success largely depending on the ability and business acumen of the Captain.

Gifford conducted a considerable volume of correspondence in order to discover the background of this unusual piece. Much was learned concerning William Austin: born 1786, in Taunton, Mass., he commanded the Grand Turk of Salem in 1815, the Fawn in 1816, and the brig Panther for John Elery in 1820; he retired from the sea in the early 1830's, becoming warden of the State Prison at Charleston and agent of mills at Lowell for some years, finally moving to Concordia Parish, La., where he died in 1856. William Downes Austin, grandson of William Austin, provided the information that his family possessed a silver service inscribed "Presented to Captain William Austin by the Boston Marine Columbian and Merchants Insurance Companies in testimony of their sense of his merit in preserving the ship Panther in the Pacific Ocean 1822". And it would seem highly likely that the silver service and the medal refer to the same event.

However, nothing was discovered concerning Layha or his contribution, at the age of about twenty, to the salvation of the Panther; and this, together with his later career and the circumstances of his death aboard the Carib remain a mystery. Even his name presents a problem; it is not Portuguese, but may be an unusual variant of the Spanish name Laya, fairly common in South America. Thus Miss Webster's claim that her maternal family were Portuguese should be treated with caution and may have been a harmless snobbish deception to ensure greater social acceptability in respectable Boston society.

With C. S. Gifford's correspondence and a framed photograph of a painting of William Austin in the Peabody Museum, Salem.

GENERAL CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. Definitions. In these Conditions Glendining & Co., who act only as auctioneers and agents for the vendor, are called "the Auctioneers", and the representative of Glendining & Co. conducting the auction is called "The Auctioneer".
2. General. Whilst Glendining & Co. make every effort to ensure the accuracy of their catalogue and the description of any lot:
 - (a) Each lot as set out in the catalogue or as divided or combined with any other lot or lots is sold by the vendor with all faults, imperfections and errors of descriptions.
 - (b) Glendining & Co. do not accept responsibility for the authenticity, attribution, genuineness, origin, authorship, date, age, period, condition or quality of any lot, unless they have been instructed in writing by the vendor so to certify, and in such case the Auctioneers do so as agents of the vendor and are not themselves responsible for such claims.
 - (c) All statements, whether printed in the catalogue or made orally, as to any of the matters set out in (b) above are statements of opinion only and are not to be taken as being or implying any warranties or representations of fact by Glendining & Co., unless they have been instructed in writing by the vendor so to certify, and in such case the Auctioneers do so as agents of the vendor and are not themselves responsible for such claims.
 - (d) Any claim under any Statute must be received in writing by the Auctioneer within ten days of the day of the sale.
3. The Auction.
 - (a) The Auctioneer has absolute discretion to divide any lot, to combine any two or more lots or to withdraw any lot or lots from the sale, to refuse bids, regulate bidding or cancel the sale without in any case giving any reason or without previous notice.  - (b) The highest bidder shall be the buyer except in the case of a dispute. If during the auction the Auctioneer considers that a dispute has arisen, he has absolute discretion to settle it or to re-offer the lot. The Auctioneer may at his sole discretion determine the advance of bidding or refuse a bid.
 - (c) Each lot is put up for sale subject to any reserve price placed by the vendor. Where there is no reserve price (but not otherwise) the seller has the right to bid either personally or by any one person (who may be the Auctioneer).
 - (d) All conditions, notices, descriptions, statements and other matters in the catalogue and elsewhere concerning any lot are subject to any statements modifying or affecting the same made by the Auctioneer from the rostrum prior to any bid being accepted for the lot.
4. Rescission. Notwithstanding any other terms of these Conditions, if within fourteen days after the sale Glendining & Co. have received from the buyer of any lot notice in writing that in his view the lot is a deliberate forgery and within twenty-one days after such notification the buyer returns the same to Glendining & Co. in the same condition as at the time of sale and by producing evidence, the burden of proof to be upon the buyer, satisfies Glendining & Co. that considered in the light of the entry in the catalogue the lot is a deliberate forgery, then the sale of the lot will be rescinded and the purchase price of the same refunded. Both the buyer and the vendor agree to be bound by the decision of Glendining & Co.
5. Default. Glendining & Co. disclaim responsibility for default by either the buyer or the vendor because they act as agents for the vendor only and therefore do not pay out to the vendor until payment is received from the buyer. Instructions given by telephone are accepted at the sender's risk and must be confirmed in writing forthwith.

BUYERS CONDITIONS

18. Inspection. Each buyer by making a bid for a lot acknowledges that he has satisfied himself fully before bidding by inspection or otherwise as to all the Sale Conditions the physical condition of and description of the lot including but not restricted to whether the lot is damaged or has been repaired or restored.
19. Property and Risk. Legal title will not pass to the buyer until the lot(s) has been paid for in full and the Auctioneers shall be entitled to a lien on any lot sold until the purchase price (as defined in 23 below) is paid in full but each lot is at the sole risk of the buyer from the fall of the hammer. Each buyer shall forthwith give his full names and permanent address and if called upon to do so by the Auctioneer shall forthwith pay to Glendining & Co. such proportion of the purchase price as the Auctioneer may require. If the buyer fails to do so, the lot may at the Auctioneer's sole discretion be put up again and re-sold.
20. Every bidder shall be deemed to act as principal unless there is in force a written acknowledgement by Glendining & Co. that he acts as agent on behalf of a named principal.
21. Removal of Goods.
 - (a) No purchase shall be claimed or removed until it has been paid for and the sale has been concluded. SALE CATALOGUES

On the average we issue twelve or more Coin Catalogues and three Naval & Military Medal Catalogues each year, some of which are usually of Sales of important Collections.

CATALOGUE SUBSCRIPTIONS

Sale Catalogues, frequently illustrated, are normally posted to Subscribers about three weeks prior to the date of Sale.

Lists of "Prices Bid" are issued after each Sale, thus giving at a glance a reliable guide to value. The final test of value must always be auction prices rather than the figures given in books of reference, for changing times and fashions soon render the latter obsolete and misleading. The Lists of "Prices Bid" will probably be enclosed in a following Sale Catalogue.

AIR MAIL POSTAGE

To allow subscribers resident outside Europe time to submit Postal Bids, Sale Catalogues will, if desired, be sent by Air Mail. Air Mail postage is not, however, included in the Subscription Rate and the cost must be borne by the Subscriber. In such cases a deposit against the cost is required.
